lecōnde quarter happely ſhall a kyng take a Journey out of his re alme/but yf he ſo do he ſhall not come home ayen for his enmy Kyngꝭ & pryncꝭ this yere ſhall not be wout trouble & heuyneſſ bycauſe of dyſcorde be twene theym/& alſo Inſurrecyon of the ſubgectes/wherfore it is good þ kyngꝭ & pryncꝭ kepe theꝯ wyſe from the cōmune people & from poyſons & other perylles/no ſhall not be good for theym to moue warre the fyrſt .iij. quarte of the yere/nor yet to moue warre by theyr meyn from þ myddes Auguſt to the .xx. day of Octobre/but yf warre be moued ayen theym lete theym relyſte it by prouyſyon & dyſferre it & þ ſhal beſt/but in concluſyon the kyngꝭ & pryncꝭ ſhall ſubdue theyr a uerſaryes as ſayd the laſt yere in my pronoſtycacōns/wherby Corny ſhmen yf they had ben wyſe myght haue ben ware.
¶ It ſholde ſeme by the reuolucyon of the yere þ kynges ſho take Journeys to fyght ayenſt theyr enmyes/but lete theꝯ be w of perylles & ſykneſſes & other ſuche hurtes & Jeopardyes.
¶ The kyng of Englond this yere ſhall ouercome his enmy ſhalbe exalted & fortunate w̄ his childern/he ſhalbe this yere poled to ryde about his realme to ſporte hym & to ouerſee & o his realme/in whiche Journey a knyght or one apte to the wa a may of grete ſtrength & a ſeruaūt of the kyngꝭ court ſhall Englonde ſhall not be without ſykneſſes & peſtylences/marc tes of Englonde ſhall prolpere & haue wynnynge.
¶ The pryncē Arthure this yere ſhal ꝓſpere & encreace his ſtaūce & honour. Myn lorde Henry duke of Yorke/& my lady garete his ſyſter the whiche ſhall after this be a quene or elle ue ſome grete honour ſhall this yere be hole & fortunate.
¶ The kyng of fraūce ſhal this yere abyde in his realme & not go out at leſt but by a lytell Journey/yf he do he ſhall o come his enmyes. But it ſhalbe good for hym to kepe good the .iij. quarter & afore leſt he haue ſykneſſes/he ſhalbe loue his ſubgectes/but it is to be doubted þ one grete may ſhall r Inſurrecyon ayenſt hym/he ſhall ſpende his ſubſtaūce by rpours & by fyre . A clerke or a wyſe phyloſophre & a woma the kynges blood ſhall deye. The realmes of fraūce ſhall n wout dyscorde & sykenelles. ¶ The kyng of Spayne this yere albe in helth & prosperyte/& his lordes & helpers shalbe exalted t some shall vary from his mynde/ þ whiche shalbe punysshed Inprysonement/he shal not be moche troubled w warre this ye but they þ be his enmyes shall departe w worde wout batayll/payne shall not be wout sykenelles & deth/& in the .ij. quarter ey shal haue stryf wherby some shalbe Inprysoned or els deye.

The kyng of Romayns this yere shalbe moued w warre & his des & helpers shalbe vexed w sykenelles/& they shall not be all e to hym & his substaunce shalbe consumed by warryours/wherfo it shalbe good for hym to beware of his enmyes of poylons & all euyll gydynge/for it is to be fered lest some Infortune hap o hym & also by sykenelle. The tyme of gretest peryll shalbe in þ lt & the.iij.quarter to tell þ day & houre were harde wout grete our/but wyse men wyll walke surely by þ waye. ¶ The kyng Scottes this yere shalbe in peryll of hote sykenelles or els venym els some other euyl accydent/wherfor late hym beware in þ fyrst arter/his helpers nor his substaunce shall not prosper. ¶ The e of Burgoyne shalbe heuy this yere & shall haue a sykenelle/erfore lete hym & his counseyll take hede/ þ tyme of gretest peryll lbe in the.ij.quarter. Flaudres shal not prospere for dyuerse in/unes as dyscorde batayl sykenelles deth effusyon of blood & fyre Gouernours of cytees this yere shall do metely well/but lete beware of dyscordes sykenelles & Inprysonementes & deth/& nely in the.ij.quarter & more in the west partyes than in thest tyes. As for men subget to the.xij.lygnes Jouerpalle/who lust e they be may haue recours to þ latyn boke. Of men subget e .vij. planetes & fyrst to Saturne. Saturn as he relygyous clothed w blacke habytes wyse physolophres & dyuynes/olde fullers & vyle men namely excercysynge themselfe in water this yere do metely well/lete they beware of sykenelles in a all in the.iij.garter. Royals as cardynals bysshops & other es. Counseyllours of kyngs canonystes lawyers nobles & go/ours of cytees shal do as is aforsayd of gouernours of cytees cyalles as be dukes captayns & soudyers & counseyllours of ¶ Iule shalbe temperate ynough after his nature/ but about the begynnynge shalbe grete raynes & wynde w̄ hayle thonō & lyghtnynge/ & namely about the.iij.daye/ dayes of alteracōn after þ̄ begynnynge shalbe.viij.x.xiij.xvi.xix.xx.xxij.xxiij.xxviij.xxix.xxx.

¶ Auguste shalbe temperate ynough after his nature/ but in the fyrst thyrde partye shalbe grete raynes & wyndes with thonder and hayle/ but in the other two partyes it shall alter/ dayes of alteracyon.xiij.xiiij.xvij.xx.xxij.xxvi.

¶ Septembre shalbe wyndy & rayny tempestuous with thonder and lyghtnynge/ dayes of alteracyon.ij.v.vi.ix.xij.xv.xvi.xix.xx.xxij.xxvi.xxvij.xxviij.xxix.xxx.

¶ Octobre shalbe accordynge to his nature fro the.iij.daye & the .vi.daye to the.xvij.and in the.xx.xxij.and.xxiij.daye shabe rayne colde & wynde & mooste about the.xxviij.daye afore & after.

¶ Nouembre shalbe very rayny & tempestuous with grete chaūgynge of the ayer with rayne & wynde & happly snowe.

¶ Decembre shalbe colde wyndy rayny & snowy/ dayes of alteracōn.ij.iij.vi.vij.ix.x.xiij.xv.xvij.xviij.xxi.xxv.xxvi.xxviij.xxxi.

¶ Januarye shalbe very colde w̄ stronge wynde rayne & snowe.

¶ Februarye shalbe moche lyke Januarye/ it is here to be noted þ̄ þ̄ days of alteracōn shall not be taken þ̄ same selfe daye/ for somtyme it shalbe in þ̄ nyght before or after/ & also it may not be lyke in all places for þ̄ diuerlyte of the clymate/ it appereth by þ̄ is afore sayd þ̄ it shalbe Jeopardous saylynge on þ̄ see/ wherfore late shypmen & marchaūtes beware/ fyrst shall blowe the est wynde after south & they north & after west they est & by south & they southwest they est & by north & last northwest shall mooste blowe/ this yere sholde seme to be erthequakes in wynter & name in Januarye and Februarye/ wherfore I conclude þ̄ this yere shalbe plentuous ynough of suche thynges as growe on þ̄ erthe/ but in some places of tempest & corrupcyon of the ayer the fruyte shalbe hurte.

¶ Sonnes childern & messengers shall not do well this yere for synnelles & other infortunes. This yere shalbe many synnelles/ as feuers contynuall & tercyans pestylence bledynge at nose paynes of the heed the eyes the bely & many betwene þ̄ skynne & the

flesshe carbuncles pokes scabbes & lusshe/but ther shall not many men deye therof in comparyson of so many & dyuerse sykenesses/ but yonge folke & very aged shalbe mooste vexed & mooste wymen Als for the pockes & the cure of they who lust to rede/lete they see the latyn boke of this yere & the last & there he shall fynde ꝑ may contente his mynde. Seruauntes this yere both men & wymen shal not prospere bycause of sykenesses/& shall not well do theyr dewtees to theyr maysters for pryde/& many shall departe fro theyr maysters. Smale beestes as sheep goots hogges & lusshe other shall haue sykenesses & shal deye/wherfore it shalbe hollom to ete wylde foule. Wymen this yere shall haue many sykenesses/wymen with childe shalbe in peryll/weddynge shalbe w̄ grete stryfe & fallshede & many shal make two cōtractes & namely in ꝑ two myddel quarters. Felowes shall vse sotyltee & fallshede. This yere shalbe more dyspoled to stryf bytwene kynges & theyr subgectes than ꝑ last & the .v. daye of Septēber shalbe some grete peryll of erthe quake stryf or tyrynge/& the .ij. day of Nouēbre/& the .xxxi. day of Decēber/the .xxx. daye of January & the .xxviij. day of febuary late they beware ꝑ make insurrecyons agenst the prynce/for they shall haue the werse. The tyme that men shalbe mooste dyspoled to stryf & fyghtynge shalbe the .x. & the .xxiij. day of Apryll or there about/ & after the myddes of May & the begynnynge of June & July & after ꝑ myddes of August & afore thende of Septembre & about the begynnynge & thende of Nouembre. Yf ther be ony deth this yere of men or beestes it shall not be vnyuersall & namely of men but by the swerde/sodeyne deth & pestylence shall men deye/& a kyng or elles some noble prynce shall this yere deye/& a mayd & a woman of grete fame & rychesse shall this yere deye. Nourses & handmaydens of kyngs shalbe in peryll. Heryetages & goodes of dede men shalbe Justly admynystred. The cryste sayth shalbe honoured this yere. but as for leyence & wyledom shalbe les honoured They ꝑ make longe Journeys & pylgryms shall do metely well/ but some shalbe vexed w̄ colde sykenesses & of theyr enmyes so ꝑ they shall neuer come home ayen. This yere shal not be good for kyngs to make longe Journeys in ꝑ fyrst & seconde quarter/in the